Customer Reviews

When you want something cold and refreshing, nothing tastes better than a fruit smoothie or icy blended drink. For a diabetes-friendly breakfast or snack, break out the blender and try some of these yogurt or nondairy diabetic smoothies packed with berries, veggies, and more. Most of the choice of recipes here are healthy and would surely boost your immune system. Great guide suitable not just for diabetics but anyone who has the taste for smoothies.

I have diabetes and recently started a metabolism diet that uses smoothies as a part of the 28 day plan. I have to be concerned about this due to the sugar contents in some fruits. I am two weeks into the book and just enjoyed a great mango smoothies this morning and the deal sealer is the mint leaves and peppermint tea leaves that help with a sugar spike

A good recipe book with a nice illustration, but unfortunately I am familiar with some of the recipes. There has some new recipes which I tried, and that's fine. Overall, I'm not disappointed.

just what I needed

Excellent.
