Absolutely fantastic book - even if you have no plans to raise chickens - the recipes are incredible. 100 gorgeous recipes from homey to gourmet. This is a must have for any love of eggs and their many uses, pastry, savory, breakfast, lunch, salad. The photos in this book are beautiful. The recipes are luscious â " Sweet Lingonberry Jam Omelette, Cinnamon-Vanilla Baked Custard, Maple-Chipotle Ontario Pecans, Froufrou Chocolate Chiffon Cake and Golden Chinese Egg Cakes are all marked to try along with many others. I made the curried eggs for a get together recently and they disappeared. Check this book out - it's a keeper. Jenny, The Cookbook Junkies.

I bought a copy for myself first, then went back to get one for my aunt's Christmas, then another a month later for my mother's birthday. My aunt raised hens when I was a child and my mother has hens now. Both loved the quirky hen stories, the solid advice on backyard hen raising and cooking, and above all the egg recipes and all the gorgeous photography. This book is an inspiring labour of love by a knowledgeable and creative individual. Beautifully done!

This pretty book is filled with beautiful pictures, yummy recipes, tips for keeping chickens and personnal tales from Signe's life. You don't need to be considering keeping a flock of your own to enjoy this book; it's also a recipe book and, with its cheerful pictures, illustrations and stories it makes the perfect coffee table book.
