It can be really nice for some who are grieving a lost pet to believe that this same pet's spirit/soul can and will come back to him/her in a different body. I believe that many people take great solace in this. Brent Atwater is a remarkable individual and forever helping people through their grief.

I recently purchased Brent's book after the passing of my beloved Italian Greyhound Petri. I truly enjoyed reading about life after death for pets. I found it most comforting and she answered many of my questions regarding where he goes after here. I believe in reincarnation of people and life on The Other Side. Reading her book brought to life what happens to our beloved pets when they pass and confirmed what I believe, love never dies. I am so happy I found the book as well as her Face Book page. There I can share with like-minded people in a positive and upbeat site. I strongly suggest to any one who is grieving the loss of their beloved pet, that they find this book and open their minds to the possibility that there is more to life after death.....Thank You Brent....

I have read all of Ms. Atwater's books related to pets, and have successfully practiced her techniques. When my basset hound, Patrick transitioned, my heart was shattered, and I was devastated. He was my "baby". So, I searched for hope and discovered Ms. Atwater's books, used her techniques verbatim, and my husband and I have received many signs from my dog that his soul is and well, and there is an afterlife. --Last night I was missing Patrick terribly. I had a good cry, then pulled myself together. I miss his physical 'fur suit', but I know that he still exists. Every day I speak to him, and I'm getting scent signs now that my husband is also experiencing. Before going to sleep I said Brent's protection prayer (which I say daily), then I said the 'permission request' (also practiced daily), and asked him to come to me in my dream that night and allow me to see him in a way that I can understand. Well, last night he came to me in my dream in vivid, bright colors. He looked younger and very healthy. No limping. Running around the house, and walking up to me and gazing into my eyes. It was intense. I am so happy about this. I have received many signs, but this was then best so far. I really felt him with me - a soul to soul connection. All of Brent's techniques work, but you need to say the words as written without ad libbing. I hope this gives you the motivation to try these techniques. They work!

My cat past away almost 3 months ago and while surfing the web to find ways to help me cope and deal with my loss, I came across Ms. Atwater's books, YouTube Chanel and Facebook page. Reading this book as helped me understand, truly believe and change my thoughts in relation to his transition to Rainbow Bridge. I highly recommend reading this book and hope you too find comfort and peace!

We have recently lost our beloved fur-baby and I found this book very comforting. It resonated deeply and also confirmed beliefs that I hold about reincarnation and the afterlife. It has also inspired me to learn more about animal communication. Well worth the read
