Love this book! Tasty, easy recipes that combine unique flavors. The macadamia nut white chocolate toast was unbelievably good. An appetizer more than a dessert. The avocado toast was quick, easy and a unique blend of ingredients that I had in my house. I haven't been much of a bread person for the past several years, these recipes have reintroduced me to how good it can be when it's the background for a beautiful melding of flavors rather than an overwhelming filler. I highly suggest recommend this book as a great staple for your kitchen or as a gift.
