Customer Reviews

This is NOT a coffee table picture book. But it is a GREAT book for serious collectors, artists, and anyone interested in learning to identify types, meanings, principle features, meaning of details and colors, etc. Consists of line drawings and details of 266 different kinds of Hopi Kachina dolls.

I recently purchased an older Kachina doll, my first, because it had (squash blossom) Hopi maiden hair. Colton's book has some pages of colorful photos of modern Kachinas but also provides many pages of line drawings of Kachina doll heads with descriptions of each Kachina's typical clothing and accessories. There are also sections depicting specific features such as eyes, hair styles, noses, etc. Colton's book enabled me to identify my kachina doll - Kokopelli's female counterpart.
