Customer Reviews

We have four children ages 14-20, so I've done a lot of cooking over the years. I've been going to this author's blog page for recipes for months, and every single recipe has been a hit with our entire family-including the picky eaters. No exceptions. I pre-ordered this book and have not been disappointed. These recipes are awesome and most include ingredients that are already in the average pantry. If you want quick, homemade meals with lots of taste, buy this book. I look forward to trying every single recipe in it.

I have a warning for you, do not look at this cookbook when you are hungry and out of food in the house! It's agony until you can get to the grocery store and try out some of the delicious looking recipes in it. I cannot open this cookbook without getting hungry looking at the pictures. I've tried three recipes so far (Santa Fe Chicken Tortilla Casserole, Easy Cheesy Cauliflower and Broccoli bake and Garlic Parmesan Baked Tomatoes and Zucchini) and all of them were so good and I will make again and again. This is a great cookbook and I'm so glad I found it. I needed some new ideas for meals and I got a bunch. I love that all the recipes have normal, easily-available ingredients instead of things I've never heard before that I have to go to some specialty store for. I also like that they are simple recipes and not ones with 80 ingredients and 20 steps to making each one.

I got this book from my library and now I'm buying it. I've made three dishes out of it and they were all winners (Chicken with Cashews, Flank steak with peppers and green beans, and Chicken Osso Buco). The recipes are easy, do not have long lists of ingredients or odd ingredients that you wouldn't have in your pantry if you do a moderate amount of cooking. The recipes also seem flexible enough to make small changes to suit your tastes. For example, I added some additional vegetables to the chicken with cashews and still had enough sauce to coat everything. I also put the Chicken Osso Buco over polenta, which turned it into an amazing meal. It all looks delicious and I can't wait to try more recipes.

Dishes are really delicious! I needed some good one pot meals for my family. The dishes are diverse and are great for feeding a large family. Thanks Jo. -Becky Harding

Jo is amazing and her FOOD is too! These 30 minute meals are packed full of Flavor and super easy to make. Cannot wait to share this book! YUM!- LINDSAY COTTER

Nice format cookbook - new ideas! Many recipes do look good to this Southern cook. QUICK SHIP!
