Customer Reviews

Kim has written a truly southern cookbook with recipes that are easily followed. There is a good selection of recipes in which you can find something to suit your family. Each recipe is accompanied by a beautiful picture of the finished product. It's truly southern cooking that anyone can prepare.

I have collected several cookbooks throughout the years. This cookbook is truly a Southern comfort. The Raspberry White Chocolate Cheesecake Cookies are delicious. I also made the Red Rice with Sausage and Tomatoes and a side of Roasted Asparagus--very good. Next week I will be trying the Smothered Shrimp Bake and a few other recipes. I love that Kim has included a photo of each recipe. Photos in a cookbook is the best! I absolutely love this cookbook and can't wait to see what Kim comes up with next.

The recipes in this book are wonderful, but the quality also shines through the photographs of each recipe and especially through the author's introductory notes about each one. This is not only a cookbook which inspires one to cook frugally and deliciously, but more importantly, is a reminder to pursue one's dreams. Kudos for combining both a passion for food and a gift for writing to produce this work.

Southern on a Shoestring is the epitome of true southern cooking. What I love about this cookbook are the realistic and simple recipes. As a full-time working mother I always seem to struggle daily with "What am I going to cook for my family?" I need quick, easy and affordable meals and this book has provided just that! Very pleased with my purchase! :-)

I am a cookbook collector and this is truly my favorite! Every recipe is something my family would enjoy. Many things I've cooked before, but she has made them even better! Also, a very entertaining read. (Wish I had ordered the hardcover. I've already bent up the front and back corners from carrying it around with me so much.)

Love this cookbook. The recipes are easy to understand, and each one has a picture so you can see what it should look like. Kim has a bit on each recipe on how she either came up with it or acquired it. I highly recommend it and if she ever writes a second one, I am hoping, I will be buying it also.

Who does not like good Southern cooking and this meets the bill.

Such a great cookbook! The recipes are easy and affordable. Each recipe comes with a story to tell why that recipe is special to the author.
