Customer Reviews

I LOVE the quilts in this book. It is written by the same folks who publish the magazine Quilter's World, which I also love. The fabric choices all lean on the modern size, a favorite of mine. However, my biggest complaint with both of these is that they don't give you yardage for the back of any of the quilts or the size batting needed. The Materials List always says "Backing to Size" and "Batting to Size". Yes, really. Who wants to take time to figure that out? I could probably add up all the yardage for the quilt top, but it would be too much for the backing. I hate having to take time to figure out how much I need for backing. The back cover and the description on state that size options are included. I was looking for more detailed instructions for the different sizes, and the fabric yardage needed to make the larger size options. Instead, the book says things like: Add 2 rows to the length to make a twin-size quilt. Also, the size options are lap/throw size and twin size. No queen sizes. I suppose that the sizes are kept in these ranges in keeping with the title of the book. Queen-size may take longer to piece, no longer making it a "Jiff Quilt". Besides quilts, there is a bed runner and a table runner.

All of the projects in this book are designed to be able to be made quickly but still look amazing. You are given different size options so you can make everything from a table runner to a full size quilt. I love the fact that each of the designs is beautiful and good enough to give as a gift but is so quick to make. The use of colours make such an impact on each quilt. Each of the designs are made for a different use. You have designs perfect as a baby gift or ones that are brilliant for girls. My favorite has to be the Solitude design. I love the use of the colours and design to give a sophisticated look that reminds you of peacock feathers. A beautiful book with beautiful designs. What could be better than making quilts so quickly. I received this book to review. However all opinions expressed are my own. No monies were exchanged.

there is a nice cross section of quilts which look doable for a fairly new quilter
