Customer Reviews

I bought this book for my inventive son who spent hours pouring over the projects. The projects run the gamut from "that's cool, but why would anyone make that" to "I absolutely must have this". The projects are designed at a level for adults to do so my son will need his father's help with all of these, but a worthwhile investment for the industrious at heart.

Really cool ideas in the book. It was a gift and was well received!
