Customer Reviews

I think the Christmas Books have kind of gone downhill. I used to really love reading these, but now they are simply mostly filled with plain arts and crafts with few if any recipes. I was disappointed. I expected more recipes, and nothing in the crafts section caught my eye. Lest you think I'm a hater, I love most Gooseberry craft cookbooks. I just saw nothing of interest in this book. I'm returning mine.

This one just doesn't have the usual cute fun crafts and gift ideas that I normally associate with Gooseberry. :(

I received 15 years ago my first Gooseberry Patch Christmas book no.1. After looking through it not once nor twice but several more times. I had fallen in love with this book. When they came out the following year with book 2, I knew I had to get it. Since then every year in July I start getting excited knowing a new one would be coming out. After I get everything done for the day. I curl up in my chair with something to drink. Kick back and browse through the book. Then I'll do it again. They have fantastic gift ideas and recipes. This book has not disappointed me. There are several gift ideas and recipes I plan to make for gifts. Ladies, thank you so much for the Gooseberry Patch Christmas series. Please keep it up. I TOTALLY HIGHLY recommend this book!!!!!!!

The girls have had much better books with crafts and recipes. Can't say ion dying to try any of the recipes. Disappointed.

This will be the last one I buy. The craft ideas have turned to focus heavily on card making and paper crafts, and what's with all the felt projects? I had hoped felt died out in the 70s. After 15 years, I see some of the craft ideas and recipes repeating.

I collect the full set of these Gooseberry Patch Annual Christmas books. I enjoy the recipes, however the crafts need to be updated. I enjoy country and easy crafts but I am tired of the antique or primitive look. I have enjoyed the first 5 books of the series the best.

It was an item I couldn't get at Gooseberry Patch because the company who does their printing (Oxford House) is very POOR with customer relations ie; they don't notify in advance when the annual book is ready for purchase. Luckily, I was able to get the books I needed from ... shipping was prompt... happy camper!

These books contain great recipes and craft ideas. I really enjoy going thru the books. I love the quilting ideas also. That is what started me buying the books first.
