I hesitated ordering this thinking that for the price it would not be a quality printed cookbook, the quality of the paper is extraordinary for a cookbook at this price point. I'm more than pleasantly surprised.~A great sized font for reading.~Columned ingredients next to the directions, nutritional charting with exchanges listed, carbohydrate choices.~Prep Time and Start to Finish time listed right under the recipe title.~Helpful Hints at the bottom of most of recipes highlighted in a bright eye-catching yellow.~Beautifully styled pictures with most of the recipes.~A well laid out index.

I bought this for a friend who is in the military and trying to feed a family of 5 along with a lot of bisquick. My friend reports the recipe book is AWESOME and so is the bisquick! Thanks for making it easy to help my friend!!

My husband cooks for me now that I am ill and he loves this cookbook. The recipes are easy to follow and they are all very tasty. I have to go on a diet now.

This is a perfect laid out book of recipes and has great ideas to cook by using Bisquick and cooking ideas.

there is so many meals you can make in time at all. You really need to try this book.

This is easy to use and perfect for the busy days when you need to put together a breakfast, lunch, or dinner. With many photos, easy to read print, and common ingredients you won't be disappointed.

Every bisquick recipe you ever looked for is in here!

They don't have Bisquick in Australia, but my daughter-in-law wanted to know how I made biscuits -- their scones. I sent her this for her birthday and she got the recipe for Bisquick itself on the internet: My son and his whole family are now enjoying a whole plethora of American Bisquick-based recipes!
